

DVD & GAMES

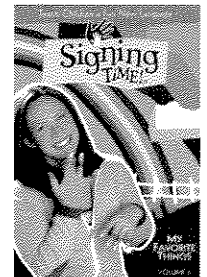

THE GIFT OF INFANT RECOGNITION Designed to stimulate infant development with personalized stimuli. Parents can add their own digital images to the movie. During the 30-minute movie, children will hear the words mommy, daddy, grandma, grandpa, accompanied by your personalized photos, and interspersed with images such as bouncing balls and puppets, as well as sound effects. Ages 6 mos.–30 mos. Infant Recognition; www.infantrecognition.com; DVD/$40.

TOT-A-DOODLE-DO! EPISODE 2: THE BODY This interactive show features six “body-based” segments. Kids are encouraged to: join in and make a craft project along with the host; use their imagination to learn fun games; meet their neighbors; dance & sing; make a delicious snack; and use manners. Produced by Heidi Heller Niehart and Speech & Language Pathologist, Penny L. Cohen, the program promotes socialization, gross motor, fine motor, and cognitive development. Ages 2–7. Children’s Creative Programming Partnership, LLC; www.totadoodle.com; DVD/$15.

LEMONY SNICKET’S A SERIES OF UNFORTUNATE EVENTS This exciting game allows players to experience the wacky adventures of orphans, Violet, Klaus, and Sunny Baudelaire. Players combine all three of the orphans unique talents to keep them one step ahead of their evil distant uncle, Count Olaf, whose greed makes him seek their family fortune. Players will experience over 16 missions as they navigate through Olaf’s mansion, Uncle Monty’s maze, and Aunt Josephine’s rickety house where they must gather objects, build inventions and solve puzzles. Rated “E” (Everyone/Ages 6+). Activision, Inc.; www.activision.com/PS2, Xbox & NGC/$50.

SIGNING TIME! “MY FAVORITE THINGS,” VOLUME 6 Kids can join children, Alex and Leah, their animated frog, Hopkins, and Signing Time’s, Rachel Coleman as they use sign language to explore their favorite colors, activities, fruits, and veggies. Hearing children can also benefit from the DVD as sign language is proven to enhance speaking, spelling, and reading skills, as well as, reduce frustration and tantrums. Ages 1–8. Two Little Hands Productions; www.signingtime.com; DVD/$22; VHS/$17.

PARENTS

GOD’S DESIGN FOR THE HIGHLY HEALTHY TEEN Family doctor, Walt Larimore, examines teen life today and offers parents tools to assess their teen’s physical, emotional, relational, and spiritual health. Get answers on subjects like: steroids, body piercing, alcohol, sex, masturbation, self-image, obesity, nutrition, physical changes, social pressures, and more. By Walt Larimore, MD, with Mike Yorkey; Zondervan; www.zondervan.com; $15.

Oliver & Michael Ryan; A Fireside Book/Simon & Schuster.; www.simonsays.com; $14.

THE SEVEN COMMON SINS OF PARENTING AN ONLY CHILD: A GUIDE FOR PARENTS AND FAMILIES Based on the life experiences of Carolyn White, editor of Only Child Magazine, and hundreds of interviews with only children and their parents, White gives practical advice for overcoming child-rearing errors of parenting an only child. By Carolyn White; Jossey-Bass a Wiley Imprint; www.josseybass.com; $17.

THE SECRET UNIVERSE OF NAMES: THE DYNAMIC INTERPLAY OF NAMES AND DESTINY This book examines the roles names play in personality, finances, and social perception. Names are found in alphabetical order and broken down by their root letters, with an index for further assistance. Each page has a small sidebar with a visual breakdown of charisma, career success, love/friendship, and power followed by a lengthy text explanation of the categories. Each page concludes with a photo and description of a celebrity with that name. By Roy Feinson; Overlook Press; www.overlookpress.com; $30.

